IMPACT STORY

Taeyo's Story

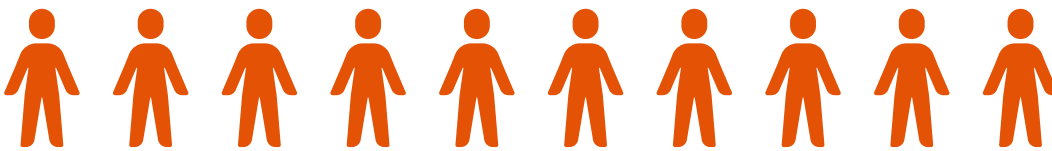

Before I met Ben, I wasn't sure I deserved to have someone who loved, supported, and respected me for who I am. But then I met Ben. Because of my Big Brother Ben, I know I have someone who is always going to be in my corner and will work hard to make sure I know that I am supported and safe.

Ben helps me realize that I am more than the bad things that have happened in my life and has shown me that I deserve to have nice people in my life. Now, I can see my own value, and I know that I am not annoying, and that it is okay to express myself.

Thank you, Ben, for everything you do to support me, and thank you to everyone who helps make our match, and so many other matches possible. You are truly changing lives.
